

SisterWorks Workshops

These amazing SisterWorks Entrepreneurs offer private workshops at the SisterWorks premises at 393 Swan St, Richmond.

sisterworks.org.au

VICTORIA Tanzania

ALUMINIUM EARRINGS

Victoria came to Australia in 2007. She had been living in a refugee camp in Africa when she was given the opportunity to have a better life in Melbourne for her and her family.

Through her SisterWorks mentor, Victoria learnt how to make earrings and made her first sale at Christmas time. She loves to work with aluminium and copper and has been learning new techniques with resin.

Price per person: $55. Max attendees per workshop: 10

ANA MARIA Chile

KNITTED BEANIES

Ana Maria came to Australia in 2013. SisterWorks began supporting her after she was abandoned by her husband shortly after arriving in Melbourne. Full of energy and hope, she decided to stay in Australia and work hard to support her children and build a happy life.

Ana Maria knits cotton and alpaca wool beanies for children and adults. She knits all day, every day, and makes these beanies with love!

Price per person: $55. Max attendees per workshop: 10

SAIDA Rwanda

AFRICAN JEWELLERY

Saida came to Australia because her family needed to flee the war. She met Australians whilst working as an interpreter in refugee camps in Tanzania, translating letters for the United Nations Refugee Agency and the government.

Saida makes beaded jewellery from recycled magazines and small beads. She loves lots of bright colours and is inspired by the traditional styles she learnt in Africa.

Price per person: $65. Max attendees per workshop: 10

LAK Sri Lanka

PAINTING

Lak arrived in Australia in 2014 with her husband hoping to find better job opportunities. After finding it hard to gain employment in her trained profession, Lak reinvented herself, became a part of the SisterWorks family and began her artistic journey. She completed a course at RMIT and has since had exhibitions in Brunswick and won prizes at the Whittlesea Agricultural Society.

Price per person: $80. Max attendees per workshop: 10

To book your workshop – P: 03 9972 5039 E: info@sisterworks.org.au